

Table Talk

December 14th, 2018 – Negotiations

You can find information on negotiations online at <http://respaonline.org/contract-negotiations.html>.

The team met with the District for the first time yesterday. Both parties exchanged initial proposals with going over rationale. The District has a revised initial with the elimination of proposed Article 6.10.2.

We have scheduled our next three meetings with the district for when we return starting the week of January 14th. This is when we will really be getting into the 'meat and potatoes' of the bargaining. I know this Table Talk is lacking in detail but that really is because we have just started. Have a wonderful break and look forward to our return in the new year.
